

CERTIFICATE OF RECOGNITION

Anne Perdue

September 26th, 2023

The County of Nevada Board of Supervisors takes great pleasure in recognizing Anne Perdue as Nevada County 2024 Teacher of the Year and congratulates her on her esteemed work and continued commitment to the future generations of Nevada County.

Anne, referred to as “Annie”, has been teaching in Nevada County for over eighteen (18) years, with fourteen (14) years teaching at Ready Springs School Elementary, in the Penn Valley Union School District, and at Union Hill School before that. Anne has served as a kindergarten teacher for the last eight (8) years, after teaching sixth grade before that. Anne obtained her teaching certification and holds a degree in Rhetoric and Communication and was even known as a “Room Mother” in her own kindergarten class – a precursor to her leadership in the classroom.

Anne is well known in the school and amongst her colleagues for providing individual learning for each child through collaboration with site aides, special education, and intervention staff with a focus to ensure students have the best possible academic and socio-emotional foundations as they grow and learn. Anne is known not just for her teaching abilities, but also for her support for extracurricular academic programs by volunteering on the School Site Council and Parent Teacher Club. She is creative, calm, passionate, positive, and represent the best amongst Nevada County teachers, that has positively impacted her students, parents, fellow teachers, public administrators, and community.

Therefore, the Board of Supervisors takes great pleasure in recognizing Anne Perdue as Nevada County 2024 Teacher of the Year and congratulates her on her esteemed work and continued commitment to the future generations of Nevada County.
