Education/Employment Experience

I am a current Board member of the Local Planning Council, having held a Board member position since 2016, and I am the Sierra Nevada Children's Services Program Director. I have 15 years experience as a previous Lead Preschool Teacher and 3.5 years experience as an Assistant Director of Child Development at Union Hill School-Bearcat Discovery Center. I continue to hold a Bachelor's degree in Psychology, a Child Development Program Director Permit, and an Emergency Substitute Teacher Permit for TK-8th grade.

Community Experience and Affiliations

I previously served 6 years as a Union Hill Site Council member, and was a previous Cascade Shores Homeowner's Association Board member. I most recently served as a FY 19/20 Silver Springs High School Site Council member. I continue to participate in the Northern Director's Group, a leadership team representing director's of subsidized child care and development programs in the Northern California region.

Other County Boards, Commissions, or Committees on which you have served:

I continue to serve on the Nevada County Early Childhood Education (ECE) Leadership Committee

Other experience you feel would be helpful to the Board of Supervisors in making this appointment:

I have experiences with serving as a child development mentor for college students, and informally assist early childhood professionals in working towards obtaining/upgrading their permits.
