Other experience you feel would be helpful to the Board of Supervisors in making this appointment:

Congressional Hispanic Caucus Institute (summer 2023) - I was selected from a national pool to serve in the NextGen leadership cohort in Washington D.C. Through the Cisneros Foundation, I met current Latinx congressional leaders and learned how national legislation is crafted and passes. I also developed a local civic action plan aimed at improving educational equity in my hometown. Indiana University MEET Kelley (summer 2023) - A week-long residential pre-business program where I joined young women of color from all over the country and was immersed in seminars covering all aspects of business fundamentals including Finance, Social Entrepreneurship, Accounting, and Business Ethics. I participated in a competitive business pitch competition where I collaborated with other women of color on creating an original food truck business plan. I completed seminars on business fundamentals including economics, accounting, and marketing which culminated in a pitch competition. Model United Nations (3 years - present) - I was the first latina officer in a student-led club where I developed and implemented workshops on position papers, opening speeches, and resolution procedures. I was a support resource and recruitment advocate for First Generation Latinx delegates. Headwaters Science Institute (summer 2022) - Residential summer enrichment experience where I conducted research on self-selected environmental topics involving wetland habitat and sustainability under the guidance of Headwaters faculty. Learned and utilized scientific measurements and field research instruments.
