DATE OF MEETING: January 12, 2021

SUBJECT: Certificate of Recognition for Grass Valley City Council Member Howard Levine for his many years of dedicated public service.

RECOMMENDATION: Approve the Certificate of Recognition for Grass Valley City Council Member Howard Levine

FUNDING: None.

BACKGROUND: On December 8, 2020 Grass Valley City Council Member Howard Levine retired from the Grass Valley City Council after more than 8 years on the City Council, 10 years on the Grass Valley Planning Commission and served as the Executive Director of the Grass Valley Downtown Association for 13 years. Howard was also appointed Mayor in 2016. During his tenure and through his leadership Howard's many accomplishments have helped the City of Grass Valley prosper and thrive including the passage of tax Measures E and N to help provide sustained funding for police, fire, parks, and street improvements, the adoption of a Cannabis Ordinance and tax, and the development of many improvements projects throughout the City including the Little Wolf Creek Sinkhole Repair Project.

In addition to Howard's public service he remains an example of the community which he has diligently served as both an artist and business owner outlining the importance of economic development and cultural significance of our community. Therefore, I request the Board of Supervisors to approve the attached Certificate of Recognition for Grass Valley City Council Member Howard Levine for his many years of dedicated public service.

Respectfully submitted,

Dan Miller
Supervisor, District III
