To the extent that the procedures set forth in this Article conflict with the PRC, the PRC shall control.

(b) Without limiting the generality of subsection (a), hearings conducted before the Hearing Officer shall be in accordance with PRC Section 44310.

Section 2. Scope of Formal Review

The Hearing Officer shall hear and review an appeal of the LEA's administrative determination or a petition alleging the LEA's failure to act in accordance with the laws or regulations specified in PRC Section 44307, taking into account:

(a) All of the material on which LEA staff based its determination or its decision to not act, including state law and all other applicable laws;

(c) Any additional relevant documentary and, testamentary material submitted by the appellant or the petitioner; and

(d) Any further information which the Hearing Officer in its discretion obtains by request or investigation at the proceedings in order to insure a fair, full and impartial review of the claim.

Section 3. Conduct of the Hearing

(b) Admissibility of evidence. Any relevant evidence shall be admitted if it is the sort of evidence on which responsible persons are accustomed to rely upon in the conduct of serious affairs, regardless of the existence of any common law or statutory rule which might make improper the admission of such evidence over objection in civil actions in courts of competent jurisdiction in this state;

(c) Exclusion of evidence. The Hearing Officer has discretion to exclude evidence if its probative value is substantially outweighed by the probability that its admission will necessitate undue consumption of time;

(d) Hearsay evidence may be used for the purpose of supplementing or explaining other evidence but over timely objection shall not be sufficient in itself to support a finding unless it would be admissible over objection in civil actions. An objection is timely if made before submission of the case or on reconsideration;

(e) The rules of privilege shall be effective to the extent that they are otherwise required by statute to be recognized at the hearing;

(f) All evidence must be part of the record and the Hearing Officer shall not conduct independent investigations or engage in off-the record conversations with witnesses or parties regarding the matter under consideration by the Hearing Officer;

(g) In reaching a decision official notice may be taken, either before or after submission of the case for decision, of any generally accepted technical or scientific matter related to solid waste, and of any fact which may be judicially noticed by the courts of this State. Parties present at the hearing shall be informed of the matters to be noticed, and those matters shall be noted in the record, referred to therein, or appended thereto. Any such party shall be given a reasonable opportunity on request to refute the officially noticed matters by evidence or by written or oral presentation of authority, the matter of such refutation to be determined by the Hearing Officer,

Section 4. Rights of Parties

Each party shall have the right:

(a) To call and examine witnesses on any matter relevant to the issues of the hearing; (b)

To introduce documentary and physical evidence;

(c) To cross-examine opposing witnesses on any matter relevant to the issues of the hearing even though that matter was not covered in the direct examination. If an appellant does not testify on his or her behalf, he or she may be called and examined as if under cross-examination;

To introduce rebuttal evidence;
