Lindy Beatie has experience with a wide variety of organizations, primarily in the nonprofit arena, from trade associations to youth development agencies. Lindy understands the idiosyncrasies of nonprofits, how to work with donors' priorities and stewardship, having worked as a staff member for over 30 years. She grew up in the Silicon Valley, is a graduate from San Diego State University, in journalism, moved to the Sacramento area in 1990, and then moved to Nevada County in 2002. Currently Lindy provides support to nonprofits in the areas of management and resource development.

Her love of nonprofits comes from her father, who encouraged his children to give back whenever possible.
