Education/Employment Experience

I am a recently retired California RN. I have worked in Obstetrics in hospitals and clinics, Hospice, and my last job was as a Senior Outreach Nurse, Nevada County. (I was very active in the Falls Prevention Program during that time) I have also worked for a large Pharmaceutical Company, selling women's health products.

Community Experience and Affiliations

I am currently the coordinator of the Nevada County Library Book Buddy Program. I also did Story Time at Madelyn Helling Library for 1.5 yrs. I am an active volunteer with the North Columbia Schoolhouse Cultural Center, mostly with the Storytelling Festival and a was for a short time on the Board. I was involved as a RN in the evacuation effort during the crisis with the Oroville Dam, and have done other volunteer work as a RN.

Other County Boards, Commissions, or Committees on which you have served:

N/A

Other experience you feel would be helpful to the Board of Supervisors in making this appointment:

As a Senior Outreach Nurse, I worked with two of the programs that the Connecting Point Board oversees--IHSS, 211. Before I was a RN I worked as a social worker in San Francisco and Oakland as an AFDC caseworker. I am familiar with the clients and the work of these programs. I have a unique picture of the needs of the clients served by this board as I visited in their homes, both as a Hospice RN and as a Senior Outreach Nurse. I am familiar with many of the services offered in this County
