A man in silhouette stands on a sandy beach, looking out over a large body of water. A dog is swimming in the water, and the sun is setting in the distance, creating a bright reflection on the water's surface. The sky is filled with soft, golden light from the sunset. The man is wearing a dark t-shirt, pants, and a cap. The dog is a medium-sized breed with dark fur. The water is calm with gentle ripples. The background shows a range of low hills or mountains under a hazy sky.
