County Counsel: Alison Barratt-Green

27. SR 18-0328 Resolution authorizing participation in the California Counties Opioid Consortium, approving a Representation Agreement between the County of Nevada and Baron & Budd, P.C., et al, for legal services related to opioid litigation, on a contingency fee basis, and authorizing the County Counsel to execute the Agreement.

Adopted.

Enactment No: RES 18-166

ACTION TAKEN: Ms. Alison Barratt-Green, County Counsel, introduced Dr. Kenneth Cutler, Public Health Officer, who provided a PowerPoint presentation regarding the Opioid epidemic that is affecting the entire country. He reported that the epidemic started twenty years ago with prescription pain killers prescribed by the health industry as a result of misleading marketing campaigns. Dr. Cutler described the impacts on the Nevada County community.

Ms. Barratt-Green reported that the County has seen increased costs due to the crisis. She noted associated costs for jailing addicted residents, as well as other anticipated costs. Ms. Barratt-Green noted that currently there is national litigation pending in an Ohio District Court against the manufacturers and distributors of these products who were falsely advertising their products as being safe and non-addictive. Over 380 public entities have entered into this litigation, including over 100 counties. Ms. Barratt-Green provided information regarding the California Counties Opioid Consortium, and explained that counties are working together to pool resources, using the same complaint, strategy and messaging to develop a multi-county litigation team.

Ms. Barratt-Green proposed Nevada County join the Consortium and hire Baron & Budd, P.C, which specializes in representing public entities and enter into a contingency fee agreement, with associated costs paid only from funds recovered in the case.

Board questioning ensued.

Chairman Scofield provided an opportunity for public comment.

Mr. Matthew Coulter, District I resident, shared comments regarding opioid addiction.

MOTION: Motion made by Supervisor Weston, seconded by Supervisor Hall, to adopt Resolution 18-166. On a roll call vote the motion passed unanimously.
