Interests & Experiences

Experience: A resume, or additional sheets, may be attached containing any information that would be helpful to the Board in evaluating your application.

Education/Employment Experience

MSW Master of Social Work, almost 8 years working at Sierra Nevada Memorial Hospital, as an MSW, SUN- substance use navigator, and patient navigator. 6 1/2 years working disability services and advocacy at two different CILs (centers for independent living). History working as a preschool teacher at Kentucky Flat for Head Start and Morning Glory Pre School, and also worked in domestic violence field.

Community Experience and Affiliations

I am currently doing a lot of outreach in NSJ, and lots of harm reduction and anti stigma work in NSJ, in town and also at the hospital with patients and staff members.

List any other County boards, commissions, or committees on which you have served:

I have just been voted onto the North San Juan Community Center Board as secretary.

Other experience you feel would be helpful to the Board of Supervisors in making this appointment:

I am very interested in helping the community in whatever way is best for continued and renewed resilience, healing and growth. I see many things through a lens of positivity, connectedness, epigenetics, historical trauma, generational trauma and most importantly resilience of children and youth, families, elders, individuals and communities within Community. I support LGBTQia, trans, and BIPOC folks, as well as working folks and the aging and disability community.
