Education/Employment Experience

I have a bachelors degree in Political Science with emphases in Public Policy and Conflict Resolution. I have work experience in the solar energy field, non-profit and government sectors. I have served on the Solid and Hazardous Waste commission for two terms and as Vice Chair for the last two years.

Community Experience and Affiliations

I currently serve on the ERC board of directors, and in the past have served on the Board of the Nevada City Farmers Market Association.

Other County Boards, Commissions, or Committees on which you have served:

None.

Other experience you feel would be helpful to the Board of Supervisors in making this appointment:

I'm a 14 year resident of Nevada County and experienced commissioner. I have developed institutional knowledge of the issues surrounding the franchise tax agreement with Waste Management and the complexities of managing the McCourtney Road Transfer station.
