Interests & Experiences

Experience: A resume, or additional sheets, may be attached containing any information that would be helpful to the Board in evaluating your application.

Education/Employment Experience

I am a 4th generation native of Nevada County. I am a retired junior high school teacher, with five years in Fair Oaks, CA, and thirty-three years at Union Hill School in Cedar Ridge. I taught various subjects, but mostly history and math. I also have forty years experience in the tree service and timber industry.

Community Experience and Affiliations

I am a thirty-one year life member of the Grass Valley Elks, and a fifteen year member and past president of the Grass Valley Native Sons of the Golden West. I volunteer on the North Star House research group once a week, which was previously located at the Empire Mine State Park prior to the Covid outbreak.

List any other County boards, commissions, or committees on which you have served:

I have served on the Nevada County Historical Landmarks Commission for eight years, and have been the secretary/treasurer for six years.

Other experience you feel would be helpful to the Board of Supervisors in making this appointment:
