Interests & Experiences

Experience: A resume, or additional sheets, may be attached containing any information that would be helpful to the Board in evaluating your application.

Education/Employment Experience

I am a cannabis education professional with a background in policy and a law degree.

Community Experience and Affiliations

Co-Founder of Community Legal and the Nevada County Cannabis Alliance. Former Editorial Board member of The Union and graduate of the Nevada County Citizen's Academy.

List any other County boards, commissions, or committees on which you have served:

none

Other experience you feel would be helpful to the Board of Supervisors in making this appointment:

I understand the permitting and licensing requirement for cannabis businesses in CA and our county. I have worked with cannabis farmers to obtain permits and I have provided cannabis education to dispensary staff in Nevada City, CA. I understand the cannabis business better than most and am an advocate for responsible cannabis business that serves the needs of our local community above commercial interests alone. I believe cannabis business brings more opportunity than risk to our community.
