Either party may terminate this MOU earlier by providing written notice of intent to terminate to the other party at least sixty (60) days before the intended termination date. In addition, and upon sixty (60) days notice to Probation, Court may terminate this MOU, in whole or in part, without prejudice to any right or remedy of Court, if expected or actual funding is withdrawn, reduced, or limited in any way.
3. Reporting: Probation agrees to provide data relevant to the Deliverables in a timeline outlined by the Judicial Council. As practical and feasible, data shall be uploaded to the Judicial Council's secure site established for the Program and/or other FTPs as established by the Judicial Council. Court commits to communicating any such changes to Probation in a timely manner.
4. Compensation for Services: The maximum amount Court may pay Probation under this MOU is $200,000. The budget, as agreed upon between Court and the Judicial Council, is set forth in the attached Budget Detail Sheet.

5. General Provisions

- a. Entire Agreement. This MOU constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all previous modifications, agreements, proposals, negotiations, representations, and commitments, both oral and written, between the parties to this MOU.
- b. Amendment. No addition to or alteration of the terms of this MOU will be valid unless made in the form of a written amendment, which is formally approved and executed by the governing bodies of each of the parties, or their respective authorized designees.
- c. Further Assurances. Each party agrees to cooperate with the other, and to execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, all such other instruments and documents, and to take all such other actions as may be reasonably requested of it from time to time, in order to effectuate the provisions and purposes of this MOU. Time is of the essence in the performance of this MOU.
- d. Waiver. Any waiver by either party of the terms of this MOU must be in writing and executed by an authorized representative of the waiving party and will not be construed as a waiver of any succeeding breach of the same or other term of this MOU.
- e. Severability. The provisions of this MOU are separate and severable. If any provision of this MOU shall be invalid, illegal or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not be affected or impaired thereby. Any such provision will be enforced to the maximum extent possible so as to affect the reasonable intent of the parties and will be reformed without further action by the parties to the extent necessary to make such provision valid and enforceable.
- f. Relationship of Parties. Probation and the employees and agents of Probation in the performance of this MOU shall act in an independent capacity and not as officers, employees or agents of the Court or the Judicial Council. Neither Probation nor any person engaged by Probation to perform the services described herein is covered by any employee benefit plans provided to the employees of Court. Each party is liable for the acts and omissions of itself, its employees and its agents. Nothing in this MOU will be construed as creating an employment or agency relationship between the parties. Each party will determine the method, details, and means of performing its obligations under the MOU, including, without limitation, exercising full control over the employment, direction, compensation and discharge of all persons assisting the respective party. Probation will be solely responsible for all matters relating to the payment of its employees, including compliance with social security, withholding any and all employee benefits, and all regulations governing such matters.
- g. Risk Allegations. It is the intention of both parties that neither will be responsible for the negligent and/or intentional acts and/or omissions of the other, or its judges, subordinate judicial officers, directors, officers, agents and employees. The parties therefore disclaim in its entirety the pro rata risk allocation that could otherwise apply to this MOU pursuant to Government Code section 895.6. Instead, pursuant to Government Code section 895.4, the parties agree to use principles of comparative fault when apportioning any and all losses that may arise out of the performance of this MOU.

- h. Counterparts. This MOU may be executed in counterparts, each of which is considered an original but all of which together shall constitute one instrument.
