List any other County boards, commissions, or committees on which you have served:

None

Other experience you feel would be helpful to the Board of Supervisors in making this appointment:

I regularly check-out books from the Helling library and the staff frequently orders books for me from other libraries, the state and nationally. I am so impressed with the system that makes it possible to borrow books this way. My experience is always positive and enjoyable. I am grateful to have the network of libraries. As Director of Development & Communications at Bright Futures for Youth, I interact with library staff to promote programs they have for youth/families in our community. My work includes encouraging community members to invest in the next generation in Nevada County.
