Dear Board of Supervisors,

First of all, thanks for what you do. Dealing with the general public is a lot like herding cats. We do appreciate you.

I'm writing to share my experiences with the first responders, bless their collective hearts, from Rough and Ready Fire Department.

My husband [REDACTED]

██████████ And as for our scary fire season, well you know.

It's important that as elected officials that you understand how crucial it is for the Rand R station to be personed. Literally, our life and death outcomes have been determined by them. The peace of mind they provide is priceless. Thus, I feel it is incumbent to share our personal experiences. Happy to provide tax money to keep them running. Please keep our experiences in mind when you consider funding!

Sincerely,
Karen Lilly
