WHEREAS, Californians statewide will be asked to vote on Proposition 36 – “Allows Felony Charges and Increases Sentences for Certain Drug and Theft Crimes. Initiative Statute.” on November 5, 2024; and

WHEREAS, the initiative is focused on improving safety in every community and neighborhood in California and focuses narrowly on accountability measures for repeat offenders of theft and drug traffickers of serious drugs like fentanyl, while incentivizing and encouraging more individuals to participate in and complete drug treatment programs; and

WHEREAS, the initiative has garnered support from small business owners, victims of fentanyl, social justice leaders, community organizations, and elected officials, and aims to address the rising issues of drug addiction and theft; and

14199.136. Standing to Defend Chapter

Notwithstanding any other law, if the State of California or any of its officers or officials fail to defend the constitutionality of this chapter, following its approval by the voters, any other state or local government agency of this state shall have the authority to intervene on behalf of the State of California or the department in a court action challenging the constitutionality of this chapter for the purpose of defending its constitutionality, whether that action is in state or federal trial court, on appeal, or on discretionary review by the Supreme Court of California or the Supreme Court of the United States. The reasonable fees and costs of defending the action by the other state or local government agency shall be a charge on funds appropriated to the Department of Justice, which shall be satisfied promptly.

SEC. 2. Appropriations Limit.

(a) Commencing with the 2025–26 fiscal year, pursuant to Section 4 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution, the electors of the State of California hereby adopt an increase in the appropriations limit for the State of California equal to the amount of the revenues generated by the taxes contained in Article 6 (commencing with Section 14199.123) of this act and Article 7.1 (commencing with Section 14199.80) of Chapter 7 of Part 3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

(b) The duration of the increase in the State of California’s appropriations limit adopted pursuant to this section shall be for the maximum amount of time permitted under Section 4 of Article XIII B of the California Constitution.

SEC. 3. Conflicting Initiative Measures.

The people of the State of California hereby find and declare:

(a) If this initiative measure and another initiative measure or measures that raises or extends a managed care organization provider tax to fund Medi-Cal services, benefits, and coverage appear on the same statewide election ballot, the other initiative measure or measures shall be deemed to be in conflict with this measure. If this initiative measure receives a greater number of affirmative votes, the provisions of this measure shall prevail in their entirety, and the provisions of the other initiative measure or measures shall be void.

(b) This act continues an existing tax on managed care organization providers, a type of health care service plan, that is used for the purpose of increasing reimbursement rates or payments under the Medi-Cal program. Initiative No. 21-0042 Amendment #1 exempts from the definition of “tax” a levy, charge, or exaction collected from local units of government, health care providers, or health care service plans that is primarily used by the State of California for the purposes of increasing reimbursement rates or payments under the Medi-Cal program. Therefore, no conflict exists between this act and Initiative No. 21-0042 Amendment #1.

(c) This act does not alter, apply to, or address the matters contained in Initiative No. 23-0021 Amendment #1. Therefore, no conflict exists between this act and Initiative No. 23-0021 Amendment #1.

PROPOSITION 36

This initiative measure is submitted to the people in accordance with the provisions of Section 8 of Article II of the California Constitution.

This initiative measure amends and adds sections to the Health and Safety Code and the Penal Code, and adds a section to the Government Code; therefore, existing provisions proposed to be deleted are printed in ~~strikeout type~~ and new provisions proposed to be added are printed in italic type to indicate that they are new.

PROPOSED LAW

THE HOMELESSNESS, DRUG ADDICTION, AND THEFT REDUCTION ACT

SECTION 1. Title.

This act shall be known as The Homelessness, Drug Addiction, and Theft Reduction Act.

SEC. 2. Purposes and Intent.

This measure will reform laws that have dramatically increased homelessness, drug addiction, and theft throughout California.

This measure will:

(a) Provide drug and mental health treatment for people who are addicted to hard drugs, including fentanyl, cocaine, heroin, and methamphetamine.

(b) Add fentanyl to existing laws that prohibit the possession of hard drugs while armed with a loaded firearm.

(c) Add fentanyl to existing laws that prohibit the trafficking of large quantities of hard drugs.

(d) Permit judges to use their discretion to sentence drug dealers to state prison instead of county jail when they are convicted of trafficking hard drugs in large quantities or are armed with a firearm while engaging in drug trafficking.

(e) Warn convicted hard drug dealers and manufacturers that they can be charged with murder if they continue to traffic in hard drugs and someone dies as a result.

(f) Reinstate penalties for hard drug dealers whose trafficking kills or seriously injures a drug user.

(g) Increase penalties for people who repeatedly engage in theft.

(h) Add new laws to address the increasing problem of “smash and grab” thefts that result in significant losses and damage, or that are committed by multiple thieves working together.

SEC. 3. Findings and Declarations.

The people of the State of California find and declare as follows:

(a) Reducing Homelessness Through Drug and Mental Health Treatment

(1) California has reached a tipping point in its homelessness, drug, mental health, and theft crises. Our state has the highest rate of homelessness per capita of any state in the country. And drug overdoses now kill two to three times the number of people in California as car accidents.

(2) Since the passage of Proposition 47 in 2014, homelessness in California has increased by 51 percent, while during the same time period in the rest of the country, it has declined by 11 percent. Proposition 47 reduced the legal consequences of both possession of hard drugs (fentanyl, cocaine, heroin, methamphetamine, and phencyclidine), and theft. The result has been massive increases in drug addiction, mental illness, and property crimes, including retail theft, committed by addicts to support their addiction. At the same time, California has seen a dramatic decrease in mental health and drug treatment for homeless people due to reduced incentives to participate in treatment. Our homelessness problem is directly connected to these unintended consequences of Proposition 47, which the voters now desire to correct.

(3) Progressive states, including New Jersey, Maryland, Illinois, and Michigan, have significantly stronger hard drug laws than California, and their homeless rate is 4 to 5 times lower than California's.

(4) This proposal takes a modest step in the direction of these states by enacting a new class of crime called a “treatment-mandated felony.” Under this new “treatment-mandated felony,” prosecutors would have the discretion to charge a felony for hard drug possession after two previous drug convictions. If charged with this “treatment-mandated felony” for a third or subsequent drug offense, the offender would be given the option of participating in drug and mental health treatment. If the offender successfully completes drug and mental health treatment, the charge would be fully expunged, and the offender would receive no jail time. If the offender refuses drug and mental health treatment, they would serve jail time for hard drug possession. For a second conviction of the treatment-mandated felony (the fourth total conviction for hard drug possession), a judge would have the option of imposing time in jail or state prison. Along with hard drug and mental health treatment, offenders charged with a treatment-mandated felony would be offered shelter, job training, and other services designed to break the cycle of addiction and homelessness.

(b) Cracking Down on Hard Drug Dealers

(1) Fentanyl is the most dangerous drug that our nation has ever seen. Because it is largely produced synthetically, fentanyl is typically cheaper than other hard drugs. As a result, drug dealers now regularly include fentanyl in other drugs, including diet, anxiety, and sleeping pills, cocaine, and heroin. Further, fentanyl is up to 50 times stronger than heroin. Therefore, a very tiny amount of fentanyl can prove deadly. One kilogram (2.2 pounds) of fentanyl provides enough of the drug to manufacture four to ten million doses, or enough to kill 500,000 people. Finally, because such a small amount of fentanyl is necessary to create addiction, it is easier to smuggle across the border in smaller, yet much more deadly quantities.

(2) This act would authorize greater consequences for hard drug dealers whose trafficking kills or seriously injures a person who uses those drugs, and it would provide a mechanism to warn convicted hard drug dealers and manufacturers that they can be charged with murder if they continue to traffic in hard drugs and someone dies as a result.

(3) This act would add nonprescription fentanyl to an existing list of hard drugs, including heroin, cocaine, and methamphetamine, for which it is illegal to possess the drug while armed with a loaded firearm.

(4) This act would also add nonprescription fentanyl to an existing list of hard drugs, including heroin, cocaine, and methamphetamine, that authorizes greater consequences for drug dealers who sell large quantities of hard drugs.

(5) This act also permits judges to sentence drug dealers who traffic in large quantities of hard drugs or who are armed with a firearm while trafficking in hard drugs to state prison instead of local county jails. Only our state prisons are equipped to manage security for hardened drug dealers and to provide them the rehabilitation services they need to safely reenter society.

(c) Accountability for Repeat Theft and Smash and Grab Thefts

(1) Prior to Proposition 47, individuals who repeatedly engaged in theft could be charged with a felony. Prop. 47 eliminated this repeat offender felony and instead provided that any theft up to $950 in value is now a misdemeanor—regardless of how many times the offender has committed theft. In practice, this means that an offender who repeatedly steals up to $950 in value faces virtually no legal consequences.

(2) The result has been an explosion in retail and cargo theft causing stores throughout California to close to protect employees and customers from criminal activity that disrupts the efficient delivery of products directly to consumers and creates billions of dollars in economic losses to our local communities and state.

This rapid increase in retail and cargo theft has also contributed to rising inflation, as businesses have been forced to raise prices to account for their economic losses. This retail and cargo theft explosion has collided with the fentanyl epidemic, as hard drug users have engaged in brazen theft to support their drug habits, knowing that there will be no consequences for either their theft or their hard drug use.

(3) Under this act, an offender with two prior convictions for theft can be charged with a felony, regardless of the value of the stolen property. Diversion programs will continue to exist, meaning that judges will retain discretion not to incarcerate an offender even for more than two theft convictions. But prosecutors will have the ability to bring felony charges against hardened, repeat offenders who continue to engage in theft. Judges will have the discretion to sentence a repeat offender to jail in appropriate cases, or to state prison if an offender is convicted four or more times of theft.

(4) This act also authorizes judges to exercise their discretion to impose an enhanced penalty when an offender steals, damages, or destroys property by acting together with two or more offenders or by causing losses of $50,000 or more. By permitting discretion in these scenarios, judges will be able to fashion sentences that are appropriate for the crime committed, including so-called “smash and grabs” committed by mobs or large groups of people working together.

(5) The value of property stolen in multiple thefts will be permitted to be added together so that in appropriate cases an offender may be charged with felony theft instead of petty theft. This provision addresses the problem of offenders who commit a series of thefts in which the property stolen during each theft has a value under the $950 felony theft threshold, in order to insulate themselves from felony charges.

(6) Along with the hard drug provisions in this act, these theft law changes will stop the vicious cycle of hard drug users stealing to support their habits without legal consequences for their actions.

SEC. 4. Section 11369 is added to the Health and Safety Code, to read:

SEC. 7. Article 8 (commencing with Section 11395) is added to Chapter 6 of Division 10 of the Health and Safety Code, to read:

Article 8. Treatment-Mandated Felony

11395. (a) This article shall be known and cited as the Treatment-Mandated Felony Act.

(b) (1) Notwithstanding any other law, and except as provided in subdivision (d), a person described in subdivision (c) who possesses a hard drug, unless upon the written prescription of a physician, dentist, podiatrist, or veterinarian licensed to practice in this state, shall be punished by imprisonment in a county jail for not more than one year or pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1170 of the Penal Code. A second or subsequent conviction of this section, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year or by imprisonment in the state prison.

(2) A person shall not be sentenced to jail or prison pursuant to this section unless a court determines that the person is not eligible or suitable for treatment or that any other circumstance described in paragraph (4) of subdivision (d) applies to that person.

(c) Subdivision (b) applies to a person who has two or more prior convictions for a felony or misdemeanor violation of Section 11350, 11351, 11351.5, 11352, 11353, 11353.5, 11353.7, 11370.1, 11377, 11378, 11378.5, 11379, 11379.5, 11379.6, 11380, or 11395, including a conviction that occurred before the effective date of this section. Prior convictions shall be alleged in the accusatory pleading, and either admitted by the defendant in open court or found to be true by the trier of fact.

(d) (1) (A) In lieu of a jail or prison sentence, or a grant of probation with jail as a condition of probation, a defendant charged with a violation of this section may elect treatment by pleading guilty or no contest to a violation of this section and admitting the alleged prior convictions, waiving time for sentencing and the pronouncement of judgment, and agreeing to participate in, and complete, a detailed treatment program developed by a drug addiction expert and approved by the court. A defendant's plea of guilty or no contest shall not constitute a conviction for any purpose unless judgment is entered pursuant to paragraph (4) for a violation of this section.

(B) Upon or subsequent to arraignment for a violation of this section, and at the request or with the consent of the defendant or their attorney, the court shall order a drug addiction expert to conduct a substance abuse and mental health evaluation of the defendant. The expert shall submit a report of the evaluation to the court and parties. The evaluation may be based on an interview of the defendant or other individuals with relevant knowledge and review of records the expert deems appropriate, including medical records, criminal history, prior treatment history, and records pertaining to the current offense. If the defendant participates in the interview, neither the defendant's interview nor evidence derived from the interview may be used against the defendant at any subsequent trial for the instant offense except for the purposes of impeachment should the defendant testify inconsistently. The evaluation shall detail the defendant's drug abuse or mental health issues, if any, so the court and parties may better determine appropriate handling of the defendant's case.

(C) Concurrent with the order for a substance abuse and mental health evaluation of the defendant, and with the defendant's consent, the court shall also order that a case worker or other qualified individual determine whether the defendant is eligible to receive Medi-Cal, Medicare, or any other relevant benefits for any programs or evaluations under this section. If the defendant did not previously consent to an eligibility determination at arraignment, the court shall order the eligibility determination upon and as a condition of the defendant's agreement to participate in and complete a treatment program as described in this subdivision.

(2) A treatment program may include, but is not limited to, drug treatment, mental health treatment, job training, and any other conditions related to treatment or a successful outcome for the defendant that the court finds appropriate. The court must hold regular hearings to review the progress of the defendant. The court shall make referrals to programs that provide services at no cost to the participant and have been deemed by the court, the drug addiction expert, and the parties to be credible and effective. A defendant may also choose to pay for a program that is approved by the court.

(3) Upon the defendant's successful completion of the treatment program as specified in paragraph (2), the positive recommendation of the treatment program, and the motion of the defendant, prosecuting attorney, the court, or the probation department, the court shall dismiss this charge against the defendant and the provisions of Section 1000.4 of the Penal Code, as it read on the effective date of this section, shall apply, including the provision that the arrest upon which the defendant was deferred shall be deemed to have never occurred. A dismissal based on the successful completion of treatment shall not count as a conviction for any purpose, including for determining punishment pursuant to subdivision (b).

(4) If at any time it appears that the defendant is performing unsatisfactorily in the program, is not benefiting from treatment, is not amenable to treatment, has refused treatment, or has been convicted of a crime that was committed since starting treatment, the prosecuting attorney, the court on its own, or the probation department may make a motion for entry of judgment and sentencing. After notice to the defendant, the court shall hold a hearing to determine whether judgment should be entered and the defendant sentenced. Judgment shall be imposed and the defendant sentenced if the court finds true one or more of the foregoing circumstances. However, except when the defendant has been found to have been convicted of a crime that was committed since starting treatment, the court may rerefer the defendant to treatment if the court finds that it is in the interest of justice to do so, that the defendant is currently amenable to treatment, and if the defendant agrees to participate in, and complete, a treatment program as described in this section.

(5) For time spent in residential treatment, a defendant may earn only actual credits pursuant to Section 2900.5 of the Penal Code and shall not earn conduct credits pursuant to Section 4019 of the Penal Code or any other provision. Time spent in any other type of program or counseling is not eligible for any credits.

(e) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), as used in this section, "hard drug" means a substance listed in Section 11054 or 11055, including a substance containing fentanyl, heroin, cocaine, cocaine base, methamphetamine, or phencyclidine, and the analogs of any of these substances as defined in Sections 11400 and 11401.

(2) As used in this section, "hard drug" does not include cannabis, cannabis products, peyote, lysergic acid diethylamide (LSD), other psychedelic drugs, including mescaline and psilocybin (mushrooms), any other substance listed in subdivisions (d) and (e) of Section 11054, or, with the exception of methamphetamine, any other substance listed in subdivision (d) of Section 11055.

(f) Upon an arrest for a violation of this section, the court shall require judicial review prior to release to make an individualized determination of risk to public safety and likelihood to return to court.

(g) This section shall not be construed to preclude prosecution or punishment pursuant to any other law.

SEC. 8. Section 490.3 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

490.3. Notwithstanding any other law, in any case involving one or more acts of theft or shoplifting, including, but not limited to, violations of Sections 459.5, 484, 488, and 490.2, the value of property or merchandise stolen may be aggregated into a single count or charge, with the sum of the value of all property or merchandise being the values considered in determining the degree of theft.

SEC. 9. Section 666.1 is added to the Penal Code, to read:

666.1. (a) (1) Notwithstanding any other law, a person who has two or more prior convictions for any of the offenses listed in paragraph (2), and who is convicted of petty theft or shoplifting, is punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year or pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1170. (A) Petty theft, as described in Section 488 or 490.2.

(D) The theft or unauthorized use of a vehicle, as described in Section 10851 of the Vehicle Code.

(F) Carjacking, as described in Section 215.

(H) Receiving stolen property, as described in Section 496.

(I) Shoplifting, as described in Section 459.5.

(J) Identity theft and mail theft, as described in Section 530.5.

(b) A person subject to charging under this section or actually charged with this section may be referred by a prosecuting attorney's office or by a county probation department to a theft diversion or deferred entry of judgment program pursuant to Section 1001.81. If appropriate, a person admitted to such a program may also be referred to a substance abuse treatment program.

(c) Upon an arrest for a violation of this section, the court shall require judicial review prior to release to make an individualized determination of risk to public safety and likelihood to return to court.

(d) This section shall not be construed to preclude prosecution or punishment pursuant to any other law.

SEC. 10. Section 12022 of the Penal Code is amended to read:

12022. (a) (1) Except as provided in subdivisions (c) and (d), a person who is armed with a firearm in the commission of a felony or attempted felony shall be punished by an additional and consecutive term of imprisonment pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1170 for one year, unless the arming is an element of that offense. This additional term shall apply to a person who is a principal in the commission of a felony or attempted felony if one or more of the principals is armed with a firearm, whether or not the person is personally armed with a firearm.
