Interests & Experiences

Experience: A resume, or additional sheets, may be attached containing any information that would be helpful to the Board in evaluating your application.

Education/Employment Experience

I have finished two years of college. I have worked formed companies, worked for tech companies and non-profits. You will find my full employment experience up to 2018 in my resume.

Community Experience and Affiliations

I have been involved with local non-profits in other counties. In Nevada County, I have been on the board of the Nevada County Cannabis Alliance and still participate in various committees. I also participated in the Citizen's Academy in 2021.

List any other County boards, commissions, or committees on which you have served:

NA

Other experience you feel would be helpful to the Board of Supervisors in making this appointment:

Involvement in the policy discussions with county staff and various BOS members during ordinance process taught me a lot about the county and how best to come to consensus on various issues.
