Total by Facility Type

Housing is a top priority for the community

- Priority for the Board of Supervisors
- In most recent Mental Health Services Act mental health needs assessment, it was a top concern
- Housing is a top concern for the state as well – lots of new resources to support expanded options

Opportunity to house six more clients

Unexpected revenues from Mental Health Services Act this year

Utilize AMI Housing, our existing contractor

Implement a subsidized and staffed housing option for clients who need significant support

Staff will be available at all hours if neighbors have concerns

Who will live there?

---

People who are members of our community who have serious mental illness

---

Long term clients who are stable but who need more support to be successful

---

Helps keep people from negative outcomes like hospitalizations, homelessness or jail
