BACKGROUND:

The Wayne Brown Correctional Facility (WBCF) has contracted with Nevada Joint Union High School District for many years to provide an inmate education program. This program includes instruction in Adult Secondary Education and Adult Basic Education. Two credentialed teachers conduct classes inside the jail up to 36 weeks per year, each teacher working 18 hours weekly. A certified GED test administrator will test students on a regular basis.

The Inmate Education Program at the WBCF is paid for with money in the Inmate Welfare Fund. The cost to the Inmate Welfare Fund varies per year, depending upon state apportionment and the number of students who are enrolled and tested. The maximum cost of the contract is $38,500, for the period July 1, 2018 to June 30, 2019.
