Education/Employment Experience

I am a current Board member of the Planning Council, and the Program Director of Sierra Nevada Children's Services. I have 15 years experience as a previous Lead Preschool Teacher and 3.5 years experience as an Assistant Director of Child Development at Union Hill School - Bearcat Discovery Center. I previously served 6 years as a Union Hill Site Council member. I currently hold a Bachelor's degree in Psychology, a Child Development Program Director Permit, and an Emergency Substitute Teacher Permit for TK-8th grade.

Community Experience and Affiliations

I am a previous Cascade Shores Homeowner's Association Board member. I currently participate in the Northern Director's Group, a leadership team representing director's of subsidized child care and development programs in the Northern California region.

Other County Boards, Commissions, or Committees on which you have served:

I currently serve on the Early Childhood Education Leadership Committee

Other experience you feel would be helpful to the Board of Supervisors in making this appointment:

I have previously served as a child development mentor for college students, and informally assist early childhood professionals in working towards obtaining/upgrading their permits. I actively participate in professional development trainings & workshops.
