BACKGROUND: The Nevada County Historical Landmarks Commission (NCHLC) was established in 1969 to preserve and promote Nevada County history. NCHLC works within the community to identify, review, and provide the Board of Supervisors with recommended historical landmark designations. In an effort to further promote local history, the NCHLC is collaborating with the Nevada County Superintendent of Schools to hold a series of events throughout the week of October 13-19, 2019 to promote local history. Additionally, NCHLC is partnering with the Native Sons of the Golden West, the Nevada County Historical Society and the Nevada City Rancheria Nisenan Tribe to immerse students in Nevada County local history.

Therefore, the NCHLC has requested that the Board adopt the attached Resolution proclaiming the week of October 13 – 19, 2019 as Nevada County Local History Appreciation Week.
