SCHEDULED ITEM: 9:00 A.M. Alison Lehman, County Executive Officer

- 1. SR 21-0415 Public hearing for the purpose of hearing written and oral comments from the public concerning the proposed Final Budget for Fiscal Year 2021/2022, totaling approximately $299,864,980.
 - Proposed budget presentation.
 - Presentation of budgets on the consent list.
 - Selection of budgets to pull from the consent list for further discussion. Public hearing held.

ACTION TAKEN: Alison Lehman, County Executive Officer, shared opening remarks regarding Nevada County's mission to work with the community to develop sound and innovative public policy, provide strong leadership and deliver excellent services in a fiscally responsible manner. This mission has guided staff over the past year in the County's response to the COVID-19 pandemic, as everyone adapted to the challenges and continued to provide critical resources, leadership, and services throughout this ongoing event. Working together, the County helped minimize the loss of life and the negative economic impacts of the pandemic while still delivering core services.

Alison Lehman reported that the Fiscal Year 2021/22 budget continues to prioritize the Board's Objectives, which include: maintaining the County's fiscal stability while providing core services; reducing the risk of wildfire; continuing broadband expansion; addressing homelessness; supporting job enhancing economic development; increasing affordable and workforce housing; and supporting the County's emerging cannabis businesses. Challenges ahead include moving the County forward fiscally from the COVID-19 economic downturn; planning numerous projects and activities to support our community with economic recovery; and continuing the response to health and safety needs of the community.

Martin Polt, Deputy County Executive Officer/Chief Fiscal Officer, provided a PowerPoint presentation and comprehensive overview of the proposed Fiscal Year 2021/22 budget, totaling $299,864,980, and highlighted the County's budget development process and budget policies; revenue and expenses; and the projected fiscal effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, which were not as widespread as anticipated. Barry Anderson, Management Analyst, provided an update of the County's pension costs and control policies, and the Governor's May Revision of the State Budget, which projects an anticipated reserve in the amount of $24 billion at the end of Fiscal Year 2021/22. Budget information is available for public review on the County's website at https://www.mynevadacounty.com/366/County-Budget-Portal, and in the County Executive Office and Board of Supervisors office.

The Board members thanked the County Executive Office's Budget Team for their presentation, and questioning and discussion ensued.

Recommended Actions:

• Motion of intent to adopt budgets remaining on the consent list.

• Discuss proposed budgets pulled from the consent list. Approved.

MOTION: Motion of Intent made by Supervisor Bullock, and seconded by Supervisor Scofield, to pull the Clerk of the Board, Community Development Agency, Probation, Library, Treasurer-Tax Collector, Clerk-Recorder, Information Systems, Public Health, and Public Defender budgets from the consent list. On a roll call vote passed unanimously.

ACTION TAKEN: Chair Miller opened the public hearing on the Fiscal Year 2021/22 budget for public comment, and the following members of the public spoke: Audrey Schwartz, District III; and Diana Gamzon, Executive Director, Nevada County Cannabis Alliance.

There being no further members of the public waiting to provide comments, Chair Miller closed the opportunity for public comment.

ACTION TAKEN: Martin Polt, Deputy County Executive Officer/Chief Fiscal Officer, recommended the Board make a motion of intent to adopt the proposed budget, less the Clerk of the Board, Community Development Agency, Probation, Library, Treasurer-Tax Collector, Clerk-Recorder, Information Systems, Public Health, and Public Defender budgets.

MOTION: Motion of Intent made by Supervisor Hall, and seconded by Supervisor Bullock, to adopt the proposed budget, less the Clerk of the Board, Community Development Agency, Probation, Library, Treasurer-Tax Collector, Clerk-Recorder, Information Systems, Public Health, and Public Defender budgets. materials and overhead.

ACTION TAKEN: Following a short break, Chair Miller called the meeting back into order.

Georgette Aronow, Senior Management Analyst, provided a PowerPoint presentation regarding proposed updates to the County's consolidated Fee Schedule Resolution. The proposed update effects user fees related to the cost of providing certain individual services and reflects changes in the cost to provide covered services, including the cost of labor, materials, and overhead. Georgette Aronow reported that the consolidated Fee Schedule was first adopted in Fiscal Year 2019/20 (Resolution 19-242) for Clerk of the Board, Community Development Agency, Information and General Services, Probation, Registrar of Voters and Social Services (Public Guardian). In Fiscal Year 2020/21 the Fee Schedule was revised to include Animal Control and Shelter, Sheriff, Library, and Treasurer-Tax Collector. Resolution 19-242 included a Consumer Price Index mechanism for updating fees annually (not including statutory fees). For Fiscal Year 2021/22, it is proposed that new Fee Schedules for Clerk-Recorder, Geographical Information Systems (GIS), and Public Health Vital Records be added. Consumer Price Index adjustments only are proposed for Clerk of the Board and Treasurer-Tax Collector.

Board questioning and discussion ensued.

Chair Miller opened the public hearing for public comment. No members of the public were waiting to provide comment regarding the proposed consolidated Fee Schedule, and Chair Miller closed the public comment portion of the public hearing.

Martin Polt, Deputy County Executive Officer/Chief Fiscal Officer, recommended the Board adopt the proposed Resolution, and then make a motion of intent to adopt the budgets relating to the Fee Schedule, which includes the Clerk of the Board, Community Development Agency, Probation, Library, Treasurer Tax Collector, Clerk-Recorder, Information Systems, and Public Health budgets.
