RE: Support for the Newly Revised Right to Farm Ordinance

Dear Honorable Supervisors:

Over the past year, the Nevada County Association of REALTORS® representatives have had the pleasure of working closely with Nevada County Agricultural Commissioner/Sealer Chris de Nijs and his team to address updates to the Land Use and Development Code Chapter XIV – Article 1, newly revised “Right to Farm” Ordinance, to better meet today’s environment. We convey our strong support for the Board of Supervisors’ approval of the proposed changes to provide more positive outcomes for our community residents and governance.

We thank the County for taking a proactive stance and addressing the needed changes with our organization and the parties it will ultimately impact; The revised language addresses necessary disclosures to minimize liability for all parties to a sales transaction and assist the County in addressing potential property grievances.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Hinman, RCE
